

Below is an outline for a presentation by Michael Smith (Founder and President of Home School Legal Defense Association -- HSLDA.org) on Monday, July 20, 2009, to the Third Monday "Evening School" Teleconference Training hosted by PreserveLiberty.com (please visit the "Trained-Up" link for more information).

The mission of these monthly teleconference trainings is to teach participants how to better protect life, marriage, and America's Biblical foundation (the source of our liberty) in simple, practical ways.

Home School Legal Defense Association (HSLDA.org) defends and advances the Constitutional right of parents to direct the education of their children and to protect family freedoms, serving all homeschoolers regardless of religious affiliation.

1. Benefits of Home Schooling

- a. Can provide a Godly Education
- b. Can protect children from negative peer influences and violence
- c. Can have more time for family interactions

2. Attacks against home schooling

- a. Recent CA case
- b. Legislative efforts to roll back victories
- c. Continuous failure of school district personnel to recognize home schooling as a viable education alternative
- d. Imposition of international law through the Parental Rights Amendment

3. How to defend our liberty to home school

- a. Have a strong army ready to defend instantly
- b. Continue to press for favorable legislation
- c. Strong media position presenting the benefits of home schooling

Thank you for your prayers and work to protect for life, marriage, and America's Biblical foundation, and our liberty to home school. If you have an idea for a future Third Monday "Evening School" Tele-Training topic that would be helpful to you, please contact Mark Matta at Mark@PreserveLiberty.com or 916-716-1075.